The University of Valladolid is one of the most important centers of higher education in Spain. It is also one of the oldest public universities in the country, having been founded in the late 13th century. A sound and prestigious institution in the fields of humanities, social, health and natural physical sciences, engineering and Spanish as a foreign language.

The long-standing Spanish courses for foreigners are taught at the University Language Centre located in an easily accessible campus; an ideal setting with common leisure facilities such as libraries, gardens and restaurants.

The Center is equipped with the latest means.
