

CALL FOR COURSES: INTERNATIONAL STUDIES PROGRAM
CONSORTIUM FOR TRANSATLANTIC STUDIES AND SCHOLARSHIP (CTSS) IN COLLABORATION WITH INSTITUTO FRANKLIN-UAH
SPRING SESSION 2024

SUBMISSION FOR COURSE PROPOSALS: until February 28, 2023

If you are interested in teaching abroad for a three to four-week period during the 2024 Spring Semester, at Instituto Franklin-Universidad de Alcalá in Madrid, Spain, this is the right program for you.

We are searching for faculty who can commit to teaching a 45-hour course (3 credits) in the fields of social sciences, humanities, and professional studies with a comparative transatlantic perspective.

Consortium for Transatlantic Studies and Scholarships (CTSS)

The mission of the Consortium for Transatlantic Studies and Scholarship is to encourage and promote specialized research and culturally diverse discussions from a transatlantic perspective. It provides faculty and students with a unique multicultural environment to aid personal, professional, and academic development. CTSS offers an International Studies academic program every spring that takes place at Instituto Franklin-UAH in Alcalá de Henares, Madrid, Spain.

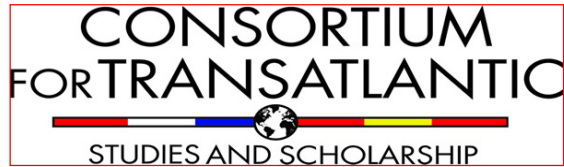

The program has a comprehensive international nature since it involves professors and students from different universities around the world. All courses explore specific topics from an international perspective. In addition, instruction takes place in Alcalá de Henares, Madrid, Spain, so participants will have a unique experience of in-depth immersion into the country's customs, traditions, language, and culture.

The program is offered to students during the 2024 Spring Semester, and it is divided into three block sessions, of which each block is between three to four weeks each. Faculty will only need to be in Spain for three to four weeks. Courses are instructed in an intensive format from Monday through Thursday, and must fulfill a total of 45 hours (3 credits).

Each block will include 3 courses and student much choose 1 course within that block. Courses are instructed in English. All students are enrolled in an "Introduction to Spain" course.

Benefits for faculty*:

- Instituto Franklin-UAH will provide free housing to faculty in Alcalá de Henares during the program.
- Up to $1,000 grant for travel expenses for faculty.
- Onsite support with housing, medical assistance, classes, cultural adjustment, and any other aspects of the program that faculty would like to consult with us.
- Participation in the cultural visits organized by Instituto Franklin-UAH during the program.

- Office space for research.
- Faculty traveling with children will have onsite support when searching for a school placement for their children.
- We facilitate presentation letters to use the National Library, UAH bibliographic resources, and archives in Alcalá de Henares.

Faculty must recruit at least 3 students to participate in the program and receive these benefits. The participation of faculty in the program cannot be guaranteed if there are not enough students enrolled in the program.*

Course proposals should focus in any of these academic areas:

- a. Human Rights
- b. Criminal Justice
- c. Comparative Judicial/Political Systems
- d. Immigration & Refugees
- e. Terrorism
- f. International Relations
- g. Business/International Business

If you are interested in proposing a course for Spring 2024:

- Fill out Course Proposal application:
<https://institutofranklin.net/en/academics/international-studies/ctss-consortium-for-transatlantic-studies-and-scholarship/course-proposal>

Calendar:

- Submission for course proposals: until February 28, 2023
- Notification of accepted proposals by CTSS Academic Commission: March 3, 2023
- Formal reply of acceptance by applicant and administrative approval: March 7, 2023

Location: Courses will be offered at Instituto Franklin-UAH in Alcalá de Henares, Madrid, Spain.

For more information about the program please visit:

<https://institutofranklin.net/en/academics/undergraduate-program/international-studies>

If you have any questions, please contact Scott Chenault chenault@ucmo.edu or Priscilla Ramos priscilla.ramos@institutofranklin.net