WHY STUDY AT LCI BARCELONA?

In LCIB Study Abroad programs, students will acquire valuable insights into emerging trends, cultivate their creative skills to bolster their resumes, and effectively navigate diverse social, cultural, and economic landscapes to learn the dynamic interplay between individuals and their surroundings.

Our curricular approach emphasized research methodologies, fostering creativity, harnessing technology, and promoting sustainability. Our pedagogical philosophy centers around experiential learning and a project-driven ethos.

Our new campus in Poblenou boasts a boutique and vibrant learning environment.

The low student-to-faculty ratio guarantees personalized learning.

Our small group, project-based teaching approach fosters collaborative learning and hands-on experiences. Students dive into the heart of creative projects, developing skills that will set them apart in the competitive job market.

Courses are taught by experienced professors who are experts in their fields.

As part of our class activities, students participate in cultural activities, such as visiting museums, attending events, and exploring the city's many neighborhoods.
